

SMOKED SOCKEYE SALMON 1LB FILLET

The SeaBear Signature for over 60 Years!

Experience the Legendary Flavor of the Pacific Northwest

In the upper-west reaches of the Pacific Northwest sits the small island town of Anacortes, Washington. In 1957, seasoned local fisherman Tom Savidge built a backyard smokehouse, and sold his family recipe smoked salmon to local taverns. This began SeaBear's legacy of smoked salmon unlike any other.

Tom's smoked salmon became a local hit, and he soon created (and even patented) his breakthrough process of pouching the salmon in way that preserved it naturally, now known as SeaBear's Gold Seal Pouch™. NO REFRIGERATION REQUIRED UNTIL THE POUCH IS OPENED!

Today, Smoked Sockeye Salmon in the Gold Seal Pouch remains the SIGNATURE of SeaBear Smokehouse, enjoyed all around the country, and also shared widely as a thoughtful and very appreciated gift.

- Rich red color
- Moist, flaky, fully cooked with a deliciously robust salmon flavor
- Small-batch smoked w/a proprietary blend of fruitwoods & hardwoods
- Ready to serve ... just open and enjoy
- Serve as an appetizer or use in a wide range of easy recipe ideas!
- So convenient & easy – NO refrigeration required until opened
- Comes in our signature award-winning gift box