ABOUT JADE POWDER

Jade has a long history of healing and beauty properties. It is no surprise that Jade powder is now part of your kitchen set with equally great health benefits for your cooking. The coating placed on the cooking set assists with keeping your eating habits cleaner and healthier. Jade offers antibacterial properties by not allowing the surface to absorb any dirt or odors left behind by the food you cook in it. The jade powder also provides a non-stick surface (100% PFOA free) that allows you to cook with no added grease, making your favorite recipes and overall cooking healthier. The durable jade powder coating also makes the surface resistant to scratches and high temperatures, allowing you to place your cooking set in the oven.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR USE

- Do not overheat the product while empty.
- Use only silicone, plastic or wooden utensils.
- This cooking set is a deluxe version that now includes a base to be used on induction stoves. All the pieces, except the lids, can be placed in the oven.
