

Clinical & Consumer Study

Clinically tested on 35 subjects using the Mirakle Cream twice daily for 8 weeks

Clinical Study Results

Measured using Corenometer, Chromameter, and Expert Visual Grading

At 4 Weeks:

- 13.3% increase in skin hydration was measured on 77% of subjects
- 17.7% decrease in the look of fine lines was measured on 62.9% of subjects
- 7.4% decrease in the look of wrinkles was measured on 31.4% of subjects
- 34.2% increase in visible skin brightness was measured on 100% of subjects

At 8 weeks:

- 15% increase in skin hydration was measured on 80% of subjects
- 36% decrease in visible fine lines was measured on 88.6% of subjects
- 19.3% decrease in visible wrinkles was measured on 65.7% of subjects
- 57.2% increase in visible skin brightness was measured on 100% of subjects

Consumer Perception Study

At 4 Weeks:

- 71% reported they had fewer visible imperfections on their face
- 81.4% reported the product evened the look of their skin tone
- 88.6% reported the product smoothed the skin's appearance
- 77.1% reported their skin was more luminous
- 78.6% reported their skin was more radiant and clearer
- 77% reported the product help fade visible brown spots
- 82.9% reported skin was visibly more homogeneous, has an even skin tone
- 77% reported their skin was visibly brighter
- 85.7% reported skin seems healthier-looking

At 8 weeks:

- 81.4% reported they had fewer visible imperfections on their face
- 80% reported the product evened their skin tone
- 84.3% reported the product smoothed the skin's appearance
- 84.3% reported their skin was more luminous
- 75.7% reported the product help fade brown spots
- 84.3% reported their skin was more radiant and clearer
- 77.1% reported skin was more visibly homogeneous, has an even skin tone
- 81% reported their skin was visibly brighter
- 82.9% reported their skin seems healthier-looking