Our grandmother decorating Easter Eggs

The foundation upon which our company was founded dates back more than 95 years. As a child, our president and founder, Cedric J Waggoner, remembers playing with his sisters at the family's chocolate factory located in North Canton, Ohio. The family confectionery business was started by Mr. Waggoner's grandparents in the early 1900's and later run by the second and third generations prior to being sold in 2003.

It was then that Mr. Waggoner made the decision to independently carry on the family tradition by opening Waggoner Chocolates in the original family factory, built by his grandparents in 1954. Having learned the business from the bottom up, Mr. Waggoner has designed and developed a number of confectionery products and collaborated on projects with small, medium and large companies around the world.

Today, Waggoner Chocolates produces more than 100 varieties of bulk and individually wrapped chocolates and seasonal chocolates including the famous i-Can™ Series, Designer Cup Series, the best peanut butter buckeyes, caramel dainties and much more. Our chocolates are made with the freshest, finest ingredients from around the world. At Waggoner Chocolates we continue our timeless devotion to the world's most distinguished chocolate connoisseurs by providing quality chocolates and confections that will be cherished for generations to come.
