

IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION

- The product has high power and children are to be supervised at all times. It is not recommended for children under 12.
- Users should wear an ASTM F1492 certified helmet* and other protective gear (such as wrist guards, elbow pads and knee pads). In some places, children younger than 18 are required by law to wear helmets.
- This innovative new form of transportation is not a toy and carries potential risk.
- Avoid uneven surfaces, potholes, surface cracks and obstacles. Smooth surfaces are safer.
- Always ride at a safe speed, maintaining full control over the board at all times.
- Use proper footwear when riding such as closed toed shoes with rubber soles.
- Never ride in or near traffic. Stay on the sidewalk or ride in a park.
- Riding at dusk or after dark can be dangerous. It is safer to ride during the day.
- Always ride safely and adjust speed and direction according to terrain.
- Always abide by all traffic and other applicable laws.
- Do not misuse.

* A certified helmet suitable for skateboarding that covers the back of the head. A bicycle helmet is not usually sufficient.